

About Round About Players:

Mission:

To cultivate, enrich, and support undergraduate students at the University of Texas at Austin by providing resources to refine their artistic skills and producing theatre that is engaging, exhilarating, and daring.

Description:

Round About Players is a student organization that was founded in 2002 by University of Texas alumni Jay Asterman. Jay desired that Round About Players exist as student organization that provides an outlet for students of all majors to explore multiple aspects of theatre.

In 2012, ten years after its creation, Theatre and Dance students Sean Tecson and Addie Arnold re-established Round About Players as an organization that not only produces works of theatre, but also works to refine and strengthen the artistic skills of its members.
